Interim Guidelines on the Declaration of White List for Transit via the “Second-line” in the Guangdong-Macao In-Depth Cooperation Zone in Hengqin

In accordance with the Master Plan for the Construction of Guangdong Macao In-Depth Cooperation Zone in Hengqin, the Master Plan of the Development of the Guangdong-Macao In-Depth Cooperation Zone in Hengqin, and relevant national financial and tax policies and customs supervision measures, the Guidelines on Declaration of White List for Transit via Second-line (hereinafter referred to as the “record list”) in the Guangdong-Macao In-Depth Cooperation Zone in Hengqin is formulated base on the actual situations. These Guidelines is aimed at facilitating the passage of vehicles driven by personnel from relevant entities and enterprises in the Guangdong-Macao In-Depth Cooperation Zone (hereinafter referred to as the “Cooperation Zone”) and achieve effective supervision and convenient passage.

I. Scope of Application

1. The scope of the Cooperation Zone is the customs supervision area between the “first-line” and “second-line” of the Hengqin island. The “first-line” refers to the boundary between Hengqin and Macao, while the “second-line” refers to that between Hengqin and the rest of the Chinese mainland.
2. The record list refers to the list of entities, personnel and vehicles that are active within the Cooperation Zone and frequently pass through the zone via the “second-line”, and is applicable to the traffic management of the “second-line” in the Cooperation Zone.

II. Smart Port Public Service Platform

The Smart Port Public Service Platform (hereinafter referred to as the “Public Service Platform”) is built and operated by the port administration authorities of the Cooperation Zone. It is based on the “Digital Government” government cloud platforms of Guangdong Province and China (Guangdong) International Trade Single Window. This serves as the Public Service Platform for declaration of the white list for transit via the “second-line” of the Cooperation Zone.

III. Applicants

Applicants for this record list must meet one of the following requirements:

1. Official vehicles of the Party and government entities, public institutions, statutory bodies and entities stationed in the Cooperation Zone and their drivers; staff of the Party and government entities, public institutions, statutory bodies and entities stationed in the Cooperation Zone and their private vehicles.

2. Company vehicles of enterprises legally registered in the Cooperation Zone and their drivers; staff of enterprises legally registered in the Cooperation Zone and their private vehicles.

3. Institutional vehicles of social groups, non-enterprise private units and foundations that are legally registered in the Cooperation Zone and their drivers; staff of social groups, non-enterprise private units and foundations that are legally registered in the Cooperation Zone and their private vehicles.

4. Residents with registered household status in Hengqin or residents with a Hengqin residence permit in the Cooperation Zone and their private vehicles; staff of Community Residents' Committees and their private vehicles.

5. Institutional vehicles of relevant entities that need to frequently enter and exit the Cooperation Zone on official business and their drivers; staff of relevant entities that need to frequently enter and exit the Cooperation Zone on official business and their private vehicles.

6. Institutional vehicles of other relevant entities that meet the requirements and their drivers.

Each private vehicle is only allowed to record two drivers, one of whom must be the owner. Each institutional vehicle can record two or more drivers.

IV. Declaration of Record List

The record list is voluntarily declared by entities and individuals.

1. Register an account

Relevant entities visit the Public Service Platform, register an account, receive a declaration QR code after verification, and notify relevant personnel to declare. Each code is unique to each entity.

2. Voluntary Filing

Relevant personnel voluntarily scan the declaration QR code provided by their respective entities, fill in personal information (see Attachment 1), make a credit commitment (see Attachment 2), and upload their entities.

3. Verifying and uploading of the record list

The entity verifies whether the relevant personnel are affiliated with the entity, make a credit commitment (see Attachment 3), and upload it to the Public Service Platform.

The record list is subject to dynamic management, following the principle of “Who verifies, who manages”. Residents with registered household status in Hengqin or residents with a Hengqin residence permit in the Cooperation Zone can declare through their Community Residents' Committees. Relevant entities (or Community Residents' Committees) shall manage the record list properly. When changes occur in the list, prompt update and verification of the information of the personnel and vehicles on the list should be conducted to ensure the accuracy, validity, and completeness of the information.

V. Removal from the Record List

1. When the record list is included in the seriously untrustworthy entities list of the segregated management, the Public Service Platform will remove the personnel and vehicles from the list and send the removal information to the relevant entities and individuals involved.

2. If individuals apply to be removed from the record list voluntarily, or leave their affiliated entities, the entities shall remove them from the list.

3. When the entity is deregistered, the Public Service Platform shall remove the relevant entity from the list.

VI. Information protection

1. The Public Service Platform shall comply with the Guangdong Provincial Public Data Management Measures, the Personal Information Protection Law of the People's Republic of China and other relevant laws and regulations in its protective measures for the information on the list.

2. Public Service Platform meets the Level 3 requirements of the national information security protection.
